

Please take note of the agenda for the upcoming

BBS Seminar on

Adaptive designs

➔ Wednesday, May 4, 2016 from 9:00-11:30
Novartis Campus,
Auditorium of building WSJ-210 (1st floor)

Agenda

- 9:00 Welcome Björn Bornkamp (Novartis)
- 9:00 – 9:30 Franz König (University of Vienna)
Regulatory and methodological issues in adaptive designs for confirmatory trials
- 9:30 – 10:00 Peter Bauer (University of Vienna)
DMC membership experience
- 10:00 – 10:30 David Lawrence (AstraZeneca)
Using a DMC for dose selection in a phase IIb/III adaptive design:
the INHANCE study
- 10:30 – 11:00 Alexander Strasak (Roche)
Adaptive seamless phase II/III study in gastric cancer
- 11:00 - 11:30 Panel discussion
Franz König, Peter Bauer, David Lawrence, Alexander Strasak,
Willi Maurer and Marisa Bacchi
- 11:30 Closure

The presentations will be in the Auditorium of building WSJ-210 on the first floor.

External participants will need to mention at the main gate (can be reached via tram stop “Novartis campus”) that they are attending the BBS seminar, then they will obtain a visitor badge to attend the seminar.

Below is a map of the campus below showing the way from the main gate to building 210.

